Das Gefühl von Heimat, Schutz und Zugehörigkeit ist was ich mir wünsche schon seit einer Ewigkeit
Kann meine Sehnsucht nicht mehr verbergen
Will weiter fliegen über alle Berge

Today is one of those days, when I need to escape
As I sit on this bench right next to a lake

I'm looking for a hometown
Ever since I left my birth town
Feeling unwelcomed right from minute one
Some thirty years ago, unseen and unheard
Wasted precious years in a crowded town
As empty and loveless as a ghost town

Heimat, Heimat, Wo ist meine Heimat?
I live my sweet dream and desire
Open my wings and visualize myself flying higher
Like a little bird from town to town

See myself living in a magical Hallmark movie
All year round in a magical town, a magical place
Where neighbors don't live past each other
But together looking after one another
Like in a heartwarming fairytale where traditions still matter

Hometown, Hometown, Where is my hometown?
I keep asking all year round
Trapped in a bitter reality in a foreign country
Missing the smell of freedom, love and family

Heimat, Heimat, Wo ist meine Heimat?
I live my sweet dream and desire
Open my wings and visualize myself flying higher
Like a little bird from town to town

Heimat, Heimat, Wo ist meine Heimat?
I live my sweet dream and desire
Open my wings and visualize myself flying higher
Like a little bird from town to town

My dream of belonging is killing me
The desire of togetherness is burning me
Don’t wane wake up and live in reality
My search goes on and on and I keep dreaming of MY hometown
