Went for a walk through London's West End last night with a shattered heart and teary eyes I asked God for a sign, a sign of wisdom about life
When a magical billboard sign lit up Reading get your last ticket for tonight

Minutes later I found myself in a Christmas symphony A magnificent orchestra playing from the balcony all kinds of instruments in total harmony And I began to cry understood the secret of life

The unity of symphony
The Miracle of music through melody
note by note, pitch by pitch, side by side
That's the way, the way it should be, for you
And for you and me
for the entire world in peace and harmony

Watching musicians from different backgrounds generations, gender, size and race playing the most beautiful melody in harmony coming from a whole different instrument and family made me wonder, why? why can't we all act like a symphony?

Families fall apart, countries get vanished in wars
Why can't we get along, live in decency, democracy Put an end to global crises, corruption and crime Use rhythm instead of dust and devastation

The unity of symphony
The Miracle of music through melody
note by note, pitch by pitch, side by side
That's the way, the way it should be, for you
And for you and me
for the entire world in peace and harmony

The unity of symphony
The Miracle of music through melody
note by note, pitch by pitch, side by side
That's the way, the way it should be, for you
And for you and me
for the entire world in peace and harmony

I wish families would behave like instruments speak the same language, note by note, side by side respect each other like the elements of music melody, harmony, rhythm, and timbre

If musicians would play solo Ignore the notes and use their elbow Push away members from the spotlight
The audience wouldn't be able to enjoy Enjoy the miracle of music, the miracle of life

The unity of symphony
The Miracle of music through melody
note by note, pitch by pitch, side by side
That's the way, the way it should be, for you
And for you and me
for the entire world in peace and harmony

God, conductor of the universe Heal my shattered heart Re-unite broken families like a song melody Re-connect countries in war like a symphony
I pray for a Christmas miracle, the miracle of music
